Dear Valued Stakeholder

RE: NRCS POPIA COMPLIANCE

The right to privacy is a fundamental human right which is recognised and protected in the South African Constitution and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA). POPIA aims to promote the protection of privacy through the application of its guiding principles for the processing of personal information. The NRCS, like many other organisations, is required to comply with POPIA, which came into effect on 1 July 2021. POPI provides guidelines on how personal information should be handled and managed in our line of business. The NRCS will continue to manage, monitor, and develop policies, processes, and systems to ensure compliance with the Act. This will ensure that all practical and reasonable steps are taken to safeguard data in compliance with POPIA.

Consent to Disclose and Share your Information

The Personal Information that the NRCS collects and process concerning its clients and/stakeholders is stored in a manner that safeguards and ensures privacy and confidentiality. The NRCS, is required to keep the data subject's personal data, even once you complete your work with us for a certain period as per other regulatory laws and practices.

For the NRCS to fully perform its functions in terms of its primary legislation and all its enabling Acts, the NRCS may need to share your personal information with third parties to execute its mandate and/ services.

Where the organisation shares your information with third parties, it will take all the necessary precautions to ensure that the third party treats your information with the same level of protection as required by the law and are in compliant with provisions of POPIA.

Should you have any concerns regarding the manner in which your personal information is being processed, you are entitled to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator. Should you have any objection to the terms of use, you are welcome to contact us at the below addresses.
