- (a) matters in respect of which the National Regulator could play a role; and
 - (b) any other matter on which the Minister requests advice.
- (3) The Minister must establish a constitution and, if necessary, rules for the Advisory Forum.

[Amended by Schedule 2 of GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, No. 37661, dated 19 May 2014]

COMPULSORY SPECIFICATIONS

Compulsory specifications

13. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the National Regulator, in respect of any commodity, product or service which may affect public safety, health or the environment, by notice in the Gazette—

- (a) declare a SANS or a provision of a SANS to be a compulsory specification—
 - (i) by referring to the title and the number of that standard only, without indicating the year or edition number, and if that SANS is amended, the amended SANS is deemed to have been incorporated: or
 - (ii) by referring to the title, number and year or edition number of that SANS;
 - (b) declare an amended SANS or an amended provision of a SANS to be a compulsory specification if the original declaration was made in terms of subsection (1) (a) (ii);
 - (c) declare or amend a compulsory specification if a SANS or a provision of a SANS is not available in terms of paragraphs (a) and (b); or
 - (d) withdraw a compulsory specification.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c)—
- (a) must contain full particulars of the specification, provision or amendment;

- (b) comes into operation on a date fixed in the notice, which date may not be less than two months after the date of publication of the notice;
 - (c) may fix different dates on which different provisions of a compulsory specification come into operation. (3) The Minister may alter a date referred to in subsection 2(b) or (c) by notice in the Gazette.
- (4) The Minister may not publish a notice under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c), unless a preliminary notice has been published in the Gazette—
 - (a) setting out full particulars of the proposed compulsory specification or amendment; and
 - (b) in which interested persons are invited to comment on the proposed compulsory specification in writing by not less than two months after the date of the publication of the preliminary notice.
- (5) The Minister must consult with the Minister responsible for administering any Act or regulations that regulate the import, sale or supply of any commodity, product or service. or any process, that is the subject of a preliminary notice in terms of subsection (4) (a).

- (6) A notice under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) may—
- (a) require that a commodity or product to which a compulsory specification applies be marked in the prescribed manner with a distinctive mark, which constitutes a declaration of conformity to the requirements of a compulsory specification;
 - (b) require that importers and manufacturers label a commodity or product to which a compulsory specification applies in accordance with its origin, batch, date of manufacture, characteristics or other particulars of the article;
 - (c) require that importers and manufacturers be in possession of a letter of authority certificate issued by the National Regulator in terms of section 5(2) (f);
 - (d) amend a requirement referred to in paragraph (b): and
 - (e) withdraw a requirement referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d).
- (7) The Minister may give effect to subsections (1) and (6) in the same notice.

- (8) The Minister may make regulations in terms of section 36 that set out the consultation process which must precede the declaration or amendment contemplated in subsection (1)(c).

Effect of declaration as compulsory specification

14. (1) No person may import, sell or supply a commodity, product or service to which a compulsory specification applies, except in accordance with that specification.
- (2) No person may import, sell or supply a commodity, product or service to which a compulsory specification applies, unless—
- (a) the commodity, product or service complies with, or has been manufactured in accordance with, the compulsory specification, or both: and
 - (b) if applicable, the distinctive mark referred to in section 13(6) (a) has been applied to the commodity, product or service in the prescribed manner and the commodity, product or service has been marked in accordance with any requirements in terms of section 13(6) (b).

- (3) Any person who imports, sells or supplies a commodity, product or service to which a compulsory specification applies, must—
- (a) keep or supply to the National Regulator such records as may be prescribed by the Minister.
 - (b) pay such fees to the National Regulator as may be prescribed by the Minister after consultation with the Minister of Finance.
- (4) The National Regulator may issue a sales permit exempting the person to whom it has been issued from complying with subsection (2) (a).
- (5) The National Regulator may issue a permit exempting the person to whom it has been issued from complying with subsection (2) (a) for an experimental type approval commodity or product to which a compulsory specification applies.
- (6) The Minister may make regulations in terms of section 36 to prescribe the process for the issuing of a permit contemplated in subsection (4) or (5).

Non-conformance to compulsory specification

15. (l) If the Chief Executive Officer on reasonable grounds suspects that a commodity or product, or a consignment or batch of a commodity or product, does not conform to or has not been manufactured in accordance with a compulsory specification that applies to it, the Chief Executive Officer may issue a directive to ensure that any person who is in possession or control of the commodity or product, consignment or batch, keeps it in his or her possession or under his or her control at or on any premises specified in the directive, and does not tamper with or dispose of it, until the directive is withdrawn by the Chief Executive Officer in writing.

- (2) The Minister may make regulations in terms of section 36 to set time limits for the withdrawal of the directive referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) If the National Regulator finds that a commodity or product referred to in sub- section (1) does not conform to the compulsory specification concerned, National Regulator may —
 - (a) take action to ensure the recall of a commodity or product;
 - (b) direct in writing that the importer of the consignment returns it to its country of origin; or
 - (c) direct in writing that the consignment or batch of the article concerned be confiscated, destroyed or dealt with in such other manner as the National Regulator may consider fit.

- (4) The National Regulator must inform the Minister in writing on action taken in terms of subsection (3) within 21 days.

[Amended by Schedule 2 of GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, No. 37661, dated 19 May 2014]

Appointment of market surveillance inspectors

16. (1) In order to ensure compliance with this Act, the Chief Executive Officer may in general or for a specific purpose appoint suitably qualified employees of the National Regulator as inspectors.
- (2) The Chief Executive Officer may withdraw an appointment referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) An inspector must be furnished with a certificate stating that he or she has been appointed as an inspector in general or for a specific purpose, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) The certificate referred to in subsection (3) must be signed by the Chief Executive Officer.

Powers of inspector to enter, inspect, search and seize

17. (1) In order to monitor and enforce compliance with this Act and, subject to the conditions of his or her appointment, an inspector may at any reasonable time and without prior notice enter any premises, other than a private dwelling, in or upon which—

(a) an article in respect of which there is a compulsory specification is-

(i) manufactured or sold;

(ii) stored or used in the course of any business; or

(iii) stored for any purpose in connection with the import or export of the commodity or product;

(b) any manufacture, sale, use or storage is reasonably suspected; or

(c) any records with regard to the import, manufacture or sale of an article referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) are kept.

(2) An inspector may enter a private dwelling or any place other than a place referred to in subsection (1) only—

(a) with the consent of the owner or occupier; or

- (b) if authorised to do so by a warrant issued in terms of subsection (3).
- (3) A warrant contemplated in subsection (2) may be issued by a judge or a magistrate if it appears from written information given by the inspector on oath or affirmation that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a contravention of this Act has been or is being committed within the area of jurisdiction of that judge or magistrate.
- (4) The warrant contemplated in subsection (3) must specify the parameters within which the inspector may perform an entry, search or seizure.
- (5) An inspector entering any premises referred to in subsections (1) and (2) may be accompanied by an interpreter.
- (6) An inspector who enters and inspects any premises under this section must conduct the entry and inspection with strict regard for decency and order, and with regard to each person's right to dignity, freedom, security and privacy;
- (7) An inspector who removes anything from premises being searched must—

- (a) issue a receipt for it to the owner or person in control of the premises; and
- (b) return it as soon as practicable after it has served the purpose for which it was removed.

Identification prior to entry and co-operation with inspectors

18. (1) An inspector must immediately before entering premises in accordance with section 17-
- (a) audibly identify himself or herself and demand admission to the premises;
 - (b) notify the person in control of the premises of the purpose of the entry, unless there are reasonable grounds to believe that such notification might defeat the purpose of the search; and
 - (c) on request of the person in charge of such premises, produce the certificate referred to in section 16(3) to that person.
- (2) Any person who is in charge of premises referred to in section 17(1) and (2) must at all reasonable times co-operate with and furnish such assistance as an inspector may require in the exercise of his or her powers under this Act.

- (3) In the event of resistance to an entry and search, an inspector may call the police to use such force as is reasonably necessary, including the breaking of a door or window of the premises.

Powers to question and do market surveillance inspections

19. (1) In order to monitor and enforce compliance with this Act, an inspector may—

- (a) examine and take samples of an article referred to in section 17(1) or any component, material or substance in or upon the premises concerned used or suspected to be intended for use in the manufacture of such an article;
- (b) open and examine the contents of any package or container which contains or is suspected to contain an article referred to in section 17(1) or any component, material or substance in or upon the premises concerned used or suspected to be intended for use in the manufacture of such an article;
- (c) examine any operation or process carried out in or upon the premises referred to in section 17(1) in connection with the manufacture or supply of any commodity, product or service, for which a compulsory specification is applicable in terms of this Act;

- (d) at any time demand from any person that he or she at a time and place fixed by the inspector produce to him or her any book, notice, record, list or other document which is in the possession or custody or under the control of that person or any other person on his or her behalf;
- (e) examine a book, notice, record, list or other document referred to in paragraph (d) and make copies thereof or extracts therefrom or request that they be made, if it relates to an article referred to in section 17(1)(a) or (b);
- (f) require from a person in charge of any records referred to in section 17(1)(c) an explanation of any record or entry therein, and seize such record if it may afford evidence of any offence in terms of this Act;
- (g) require any person who is the owner or in control of the premises referred to in section 17(1) to appear at a time and place fixed by the inspector, and question that person with regard to any matter which the inspector is investigating; or
- (h) examine any relevant document of a manufacturer or importer of a commodity, or product or the supplier of a service in respect of which a compulsory specification is in force to determine whether that manufacturer or importer has paid the prescribed fees referred to in section 14(3)(b).

- (2) A person questioned by an inspector conducting an investigation in terms of this section must answer each question truthfully and to the best of his or her ability.
- (3) No self-incriminating answer given or statement made to an inspector is admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings against the person who gave the answer or made the statement, except in criminal proceedings where the person concerned stands trial on a charge contemplated in section 34(1)(i), (j) or (k).

Samples and information

20. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, any person who imports, sells or supplies any commodity or product or supplies any service for which a compulsory specification is in force, must at the written request of the National Regulator, within a period stated in the request, and at that person's own cost—

- (a) submit, or make available, to the National Regulator any sample as may be specified in the request, for examination, testing or analysis; or
 - (b) furnish to the National Regulator such information as may be specified with regard to the article concerned or its manufacture or the service supplied; and
 - (c) comply with the sampling requirements of the compulsory specification that is in force.
- (2) The National Regulator may examine any sample obtained in terms of this Act, or have it tested or analysed, in order to determine whether the article, component, material or substance concerned complies with or has the characteristics of or has been manufactured in accordance with the requirements of any compulsory specification applicable in terms of this Act.
- (3) If any sample obtained in terms of this Act is damaged or destroyed during the process of examining, testing or analysing such sample, the National Regulator is not liable for the damage to or destruction of that sample, except where the damage is due to negligence of the National Regulator.

- (4) The result of any examination, test or analysis of any sample of a commodity, product manufactured or service supplied in respect of which a compulsory specification is in force, is regarded to be valid for the whole consignment or batch from which the sample was obtained or to the similar services by the supplier, until the contrary is proved, or unless otherwise specified in the compulsory specification that is in force.

(b) income derived by the National Regulator from its investments;

- (c) fees charged in terms of section 14(3) (b); and
 - (d) money received from any other source.
- (2) The National Regulator may invest any of its funds not immediately required—
- (a) subject to any investment policy that may be prescribed in terms of section 7(4) of the Public Finance Management Act: and
 - (b) in such manner as may be approved by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

Application of Public Finance Management Act

27. (1) The National Regulator is a national public entity and must comply with the Public Finance Management Act.
- (2) For the purposes of the Public Finance Management Act—
- (a) the Chief Executive Officer is the accounting authority as contemplated by section 49(2) (a) of that Act;
 - (b) the Minister is the executive authority as contemplated by section 52 of the Public Finance Management Act; and

No 31216

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, 4 JULY 2008

Act No. 5, 2008

NATIONAL REGULATOR FOR COMPULSORY SPECIFICATIONS

ACT. 2008

- (c) any delegation or assignment of the National Regulator's powers and duties must be in accordance with section 56 of the Public Finance Management Act.

Financial year and accounting

28. The financial year of the National Regulator is from 1 April in any year to 31 March in the following year, except that the first financial year of the National Regulator begins on the date that this Act comes into operation and ends on 31 March next following that date.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of certain information in public interest

29. (1) The Chief Executive Officer may, notwithstanding section 32, if it is necessary in the public interest, reveal—
- (a) any information which he or she considers necessary to prevent the public from being misled concerning any aspect regulated by this Act:
 - (b) the fact that a commodity is not in compliance with a compulsory specification; or
 - (c) the name of a person who does not comply with or does not comply fully with a provision of this Act or any aspect regulated by this Act.

- (2) The disclosure referred to in subsection (1) may include the trade name and trade 5 mark of a commodity or product.

Presumption

30. If it is necessary for the purposes of this Act to determine the importer of an article, the person who is indicated on the documents concerning the import transaction as the importer is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary which raises reasonable doubt, presumed to be the importer of that article.

Certain acts not interpreted as assurances or guarantees

31. The fact that anything has been done under this Act by the Minister, the National Regulator, a committee referred to in section 11 or a member of such committee, the Chief Executive Officer or an employee of the National Regulator in connection with any article, material, substance, act or matter, may not be interpreted as an assurance or a guarantee of any nature in respect of that article, material, substance, act or matter.

Confidentiality of certain information

32. Any person who is or was concerned in the performance of any function in terms of this Act may not disclose any information which he or she obtained in the performance of such a function except—
- (a) to the Minister;
 - (b) to any person who of necessity requires it for the performance of his or her functions in terms of this Act;
 - (c) if he or she is a person who of necessity supplies it in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this Act;
 - (d) if such information is required in terms of any law or as evidence in any court of law: or
 - (e) to any competent authority which requires it for the institution, or an investigation with a view to the institution, of any criminal prosecution.

Liability of National Regulator

33. (1) The State Liability Act, 1957 (Act No. 20 of 1957), applies in respect of the National Regulator, and in such application a reference in that Act to a Minister of a department must be construed as a reference to the Chief Executive of the National Regulator.

- (2) No person is liable for anything done or omitted in good faith when performing a function in terms of this Act.

Offences and penalties

34. (1) A person is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year if that person—

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with section 14(1). (2) or (3), 19(2) or 20(1) (a), (6) or (c);
- (b) fails to keep a commodity or product or consignment or batch in his or her possession or under his or her control at or on specified premises as contemplated in section 15(1);
- (c) tampers with or disposes of a commodity or product or consignment or batch in contravention of a directive issued under section 19(1) (g);
- (d) fails to co-operate and furnish assistance to an inspector as contemplated in section 18(2);
- (e) fails to appear before an inspector for questioning as contemplated in section 5 9(1) (g);

- (f) discloses any information in contravention of section 32;
 - (g) falsely represents any material or substance to be reference material supplied by the National Regulator;
 - (h) falsely holds himself or herself out to be an inspector for the purposes of this 10 Act;
 - (i) make any relevant statement to an inspector which is false in any material respect, knowing it to be false;
 - (j) refuses or fails to answer to the best of his or her knowledge any relevant question which an inspector has in the exercise of his or her powers put to him or her;
 - (k) refuses or fails to comply to the best of his or her ability with any lawful requirement, demand or order of an inspector; or (1) hinders or obstructs an inspector in the exercise of his or her powers.
- (2) If any person is again convicted of an offence in terms of this Act, whether it be 20 for the same or some other offence, that person is for the second or subsequent conviction liable to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding four years.

- (3) A court convicting any person of an offence in terms of this Act may, in addition to any penalty imposed in respect of that offence—
- (a) and subject to the provisions of subsection (4), order that a commodity or a 25 consignment or batch of a commodity, any other article, or any material or substance in respect of which that offence was committed, be forfeited to the State; and
 - (b) summarily enquire into and assess the monetary value of any advantage gained or likely to be gained by such person in consequence of that offence and impose on that person a fine to a maximum equal to the amount so assessed and, in default of payment, imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year.
- (4) The National Regulator must generally or in a particular case determine the manner in which the forfeited goods referred to in subsection (3) (a) shall be dealt with.
- (5) Section 35(4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977) applies with the necessary changes in the case of a forfeiture referred to in subsection (3) (a).

- (6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law contained, a magistrate's court is competent to impose any penalty provided for in this Act.

Transitional provisions

35. (1) For purposes of this section, "effective date" means the date on which the National Regulator is established as a public entity.

(2) As from the effective date:

- (a) All assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of the regulatory department of SABS are transferred to the National Regulator;
- (b) all employees of SABS employed in the regulatory department and administrative staff responsible for administrative support with regard to compulsory specifications are transferred to the National Regulator in terms of section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995);
- (c) all notices, designations and certificates issued in terms of the Standards Act, 1993 (Act No. 29 of 1993), in respect of any matter dealt with in this Act are deemed to have been issued in terms of this Act; and

- (d) all regulations promulgated in terms of the Standards Act, 1993 (Act No. 29 of 1993), in respect of any matter dealt with in this Act are deemed to have been issued in terms of this Act.
- (3) For the purposes of the application of subsection (2), the Minister may with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, make a binding written determination—
 - (a) that an asset, liability, right or obligation is an asset, liability, right or obligation of the regulatory department of the SABS;
 - (b) that an employee of the SABS is employed in the regulatory department of the SABS.
- (4) A compulsory specification referred to in section 22 of the Standards Act, 1993 (Act No. 29 of 1993), which is in force in terms of the provisions of that Act immediately before the commencement of this Act, is deemed to be a compulsory specification declared in terms of this Act.

- (5) if a compulsory specification contemplated in subsection (4) is amended in terms of this Act, any reference to that compulsory specification must be construed as a reference to the compulsory specification as amended.
- (6) Any notice issued in terms of section 22(6)(a) to (c) of the Standards Act, 1993 (Act No. 29 of 1993), which is in force at the commencement of this Act, is deemed to be a notice issued in terms of section 13(6) of this Act.

Regulations

36. (1) The Minister may, after consultation with the National Regulator, make regulations, that are not inconsistent with this Act—
- (a) regarding any matter that may or must be prescribed in terms of this Act;
- (b) regulating-
- (i) the process for the issuing of a permit; or
- (ii) time limits for the withdrawal of directives issued by the Chief Executive Officer; and

- (c) regarding any other ancillary or incidental administrative or procedural matter that is necessary to prescribe for the proper implementation or administration of this Act.
- (2) The power to make regulations under subsection (1) includes the power conditionally or unconditionally to restrict or prohibit any matter referred to in that subsection and to grant exemptions from or to allow deviations with regard to, the payment of the prescribed fees contemplated in section 14(3) (b).
- (3) Regulations which differ in such respects as may be necessary in the circumstances may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be made under subsection (1) in respect of different areas in the Republic or different commodities.
